

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

How to take part in other ways

We would like to invite you to take part in our project to mark the easing of 'lockdown' as we look forward with hope to an uncertain future.

We want to make music and capture stories (in a wide variety of formats) of what has kept families and local communities together and provided mutual support over the past few months.

What has community meant? How has it been 'grown'? What is to be celebrated and treasured and not lost as we move into the next phase?

Who can take part?

Anyone can contribute and take part

- Young/old
- individuals
- groups
- families
- local choirs
- orchestras
- clubs
- community support groups
- faith groups.

How can I/we take part?

You can contribute by sending us a:

- story
- poem
- piece of writing
- sound recording
- photograph
- drawing
- painting
- record of street solidarity expressed through window signs etc

All for inclusion on the website

You can also contribute by

- sending some short video footage or a photo of what has been making your community 'garden' grow with some words of explanation – this could be of a meeting by zoom; a gardening club/allotment; shopping being delivered; garden produce being shared etc
- sharing a 'lockdown' recipe for a community recipe book – a way of sharing all the fabulous experiences and fantastic food that has been created/grown and cooked during this period. We also want to celebrate our wonderful Mill Road independent grocers and restaurants

DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSIONS JULY 17TH.

We have prepared a series of guides, along with some resources to help you take part should you wish. You can find them on our website at the following link: https://welcomeinn.space/?page_id=75

Otherwise feel free to contact us at:

Mark Tinkler (tinklercambidge@gmail.com) or Jenny Mander (jsm15@cam.ac.uk)

www.welcomeinn.space